The McCLUNG MUSEUM LAUNCHES CAREERS for UT students.

Since 2018, the museum has hosted:

24 Undergraduate Interns for credit from 11 majors.

"This internship has meant a lot to me. I love this museum and everyone involved. It has been such a wonderful experience and a great way to end my undergraduate career here at UT. I know all of the lessons I have learned and the experiences I have had here will stay with me through my professional career."

- 2019 Undergraduate Intern

14 Graduate Students for paid assistantships with full tuition waiver.

Former McClung students have gone on to work for prestigious institutions like:

American Museum of Natural History | Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History | Tellus Science Museum | The Metropolitan Museum of Art | University of Southern Alabama | University of Florida Museum of Natural History | University of Michigan Museum of Paleontology | Auburn University | Tennessee Technological University | Virginia Tech | Arkansas Tech | Tennessee Aquarium Research Institute | Tennessee Department of Transportation | Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency | Arts and Culture Alliance of Knoxville

The McCLUNG MUSEUM Serves UT's LAND GRANT MISSION

The Museum does so by:

- Retaining local, national and international partnerships through our overall services.
- Encompassing active research through our collections and laboratory facilities.
- Allowing for the creation and dissemination of knowledge that improves lives through our exhibitions and outreach programs.
- Serving all Tennesseans by staying open and free as an educational resource.
- Acting as a key entry point for the general public to the University and higher learning.
